MUST account for 7 years of address history.

- You CANNOT have any Gaps in your address history, if you were between housing or living in various place in the same area use your mailing address for that time period

-If you cannot remember an exact address use Google

-You can also try to Google your name and see if any publicly available information shows your address history

- If you cannot remember the exact dates you moved in and out, estimate as best you can, but do not leave any gaps between
